

March 26, 1964

Milo R. Cook

Milo R. Cook born May 12, 1894 at Ferney, S. D., died on March 19, 1964 in St. Luke's Hospital in Aberdeen.

Mr. Cook came to Groton in 1912 and in 1919 with W. H. Rock founded the Groton Auto & Tractor Co., which they owned until their retirement this year.

Surviving are his wife, Hattie; three sons, Donald, Pahokee, Fla.; B. W., South San Francisco, Calif.; Robert C. La Habra, Calif.; two daughters, Mrs. Robert E. Olson (Claribel), Arlington, Va.; Mrs. Harold Sour (Lois), Groton; one brother, Jess, Minneapolis; one sister, Mrs. Donald Breckenridge (Joyce), Boston, Mass.; and ten grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Monday, March 23, in the First Presbyterian Church in Groton. Burial was in the Groton Union Cemetery.